

Simply a suit with a pinched back and belted effect doesn't make what you want every time.

Its the way the "Pinch" is applied: the way the belt is put on: the judgement is exercised in placing the patch pockets in precisely the right spot.

Because we wanted to get the cleverest pinch back suits of all, we selected selected such brands as Schloss Bros. Co., Ederheimer-Stien Co. and Fashion Park Clothes.

Priced from $16.50 to $20.

Resident Fourth and Railroad Streets Wrote in Grateful Praise of Nerv-Worth.

These home endorsements of the Great Family Nerve Tonic continue to make the sales of Nerv-Worth beat all the records at the Burke drug store. This is worth repeating: Burke Drug Store—I have been afflicted for several years with stomach trouble and nervousness. I got so bad I could not sleep at night.

After taking two bottles of Nerv-Worth I can sleep at night and can eat anything I want. I am greatly pleased with the medicine.

pieces. The evangelist used Rev. 3:1 to show that the church in Sardis had "a name to live, but was dead." He said some churches are dead in a spiritual sense. He called attention to the promise in verse five. He said verse eight shows that the church in Philadelphia had as great an opportunity to do good as indicated by the expression "an open door." On this "open door" Mr. Wickham mentioned 1 Cor. 16:9; 2 Cor. 2:12. In verse five of Rev. 8, the expression "little strength" is mentioned. Mr. Wickham said Eph. 6:10 shows he should grow strong in the Lord. Rev. 3:12 promise is mentioned. Rev. 3:14-22 mentions the church in Laodicea. He mentioned those that were "lukewarm" in devotion, half-hearted Christians. He showed Christians became "lukewarm" by neglecting prayer, going to church is a dead thing to them. Do not read the Bible. He mentioned the promise in verse 20. Tonight Mr. Wickham will preach on "The Unpardonable Sin." He will use for his text Matt. 12:31-32. Come to these meetings. The meeting house is close to the Bridgeport car line, stop here. Inquire for the Church of Christ. Service begins at 7:45.

Zemo for Dandruff

You do not want a slow treatment when hair is falling and the dandruff germ is killing the hair roots. Delay means no hair. Get, at any drug store, a bottle of zemo for 25c or $1.00 for extra large size. Use as directed, for it does the work quickly. It kills the dandruff germ, nourishes the hair roots and immediately stops itching scalp. It is sure and safe, is not greasy, is easy to use and will not stain. Soaps and shampoos are harmful, as they contain alkali. The best thing to use is zemo, for it is pure and also inexpensive. Zemo, Cleveland.

SENTIMENT GROWING FOR BUSINESS MAN

DuPont Presidential Boom Meets with Hearty Approval.

As the Republican convention at Chicago draws nearer, it becomes more and more evident that there is a wide spread sentiment favoring the nomination of of Coleman du Pont for president.

His candidacy is peculiar in that it has the support of both the laboring men and the employers of labor. The cause for this is apparent to those who know du Pont and who have studied his career. The fact that he started life as a day laborer in the mines and gradually, by his own efforts, attained a position of leadership in the greatest business enterprises of the country is proof enough that he not only understands the trials of the working man, but is also familiar with the tribulations of capital and employers of labor.

In other words, as one of the best examples of a self-made business man du Pont knows intimately what the business interests of the country need and what they should have which would also be beneficial to labor. His training, experience and exceptional natural ability would make it possible for him to give the United States an administration along efficient business lines. And a business administration in this country would mean that the most important step toward preparedness has been taken. Du Pont stands for "rational preparedness," by which he means the kind of preparedness that is based on good, hard, common sense backed by sound business judgment.

West Virginia business men would be more than glad if this state's delegates to the Chicago convention would be solid for a business administration with du Pont at the head. MAX VON SCHLEGEL.

WOMAN SEES IT
Rheta Childs Dorr

It is an amazing and, from one point of view, a disconcerting fact that in this country at the present time men over thirty are showing more readiness to go to war, if necessary, than the younger men.

This is a complete reversal of all previous rules. Heretofore it has been the young men who were ready to spring to arms in defense of national honor, and the older men who held back.

Many explanations have been offered for the presence in anti-preparedness ranks of so many mere youths. Read Admiral Casper F. Goodrich suggests that it may be because the younger generation, having been brought up under women school teachers, have become effeminized.

The public schools indeed are in the hands of a woman teaching force. Many boys finish the grammar grades and leave school forever without receiving a single lesson to a man teacher. But it is true that the majority of the women teachers of the country are in the pacifist class.

All we can say with certainty is that the men who control the public schools, the boards of education, the superintendents, etc., have done all they could to drain from the arteries of the women teachers all the bright blood of vital, courageous, dynamic womanhood. They have done their best to make them all into mollycoddles and trainers of mollycoddles.

They have done this by limiting and conditioning the lives of teachers as no other class in the community is limited and conditioned. Women teachers, in most cities and towns, must live celibate lives. Unless they are prepared to give up their profession they may not marry.

In a few communities they may marry, but they must not have children. In New York City they have established their legal right to have children, but they have them at the expense of promotion.

The great mass of women teachers, then, are spinsters, leading narrow, bookish lives. Denied most of the great, vital experiences of life, they lose touch with realities. They become more and more theoretical in their outlook. It would be remarkable if this attitude of mind was not reflected in the minds of many of their pupils.

Add to this the fact that nowhere in the school curriculum is there any place for the teaching of civics, no chance for children to acquire a national spirit. If the system does not breed a nation of mollycoddles it is because nature mercifully intervenes and holds the American boy true to type.

NOTED SUFFRAGET WILL SPEAK HERE

Mrs. Gullford Dudley.

Mrs. Gullford Dudley, of Tennessee, who will be heard in this city Friday in an address favoring the adoption of the pending equal suffrage amendment, is one of the most charming and convincing orators in the country. She is president of the Tennessee Equal Suffrage Association and has long been a leader in her own state. It was largely due to her tact, finesse and good hard work that the legislature of the Volunteer state passed the suffrage enabling bill at the last session. At that time she was granted the unusual honor of addressing the solons while in session and she made a fine impression. Immediately after her speech the bill passed almost unanimously.

ably represents.

Before becoming an officer in the state organization Mrs. Dudley was active in the leadership of the Nashville Equal Suffrage League. This was a potent factor in the growth of the movement in the state. In three years the Nashville League grew from a membership of seven to 1,500. Mrs. Dudley has been its president since it was founded and has assisted in organizing many other leagues throughout the commonwealth. While in West Virginia Mrs. Dudley will speak in Huntington, Wheeling, Morgantown, Clarksburg and several other cities.

It is certain that a large number of men and women will be present next Friday to hear Mrs. Dudley, and it is equally certain that most of her hearers will afterward be ardently in favor of the amendment. She will speak at 3 p. m. in the Red Cross room of the Masonic temple. Every-
